

The Middle Ages in the modern world

University of Manchester

Samuel Alexander Building

28 June to 1 July 2017

MAMO explores the continued return to, and relevance of, the Middle Ages in the modern world, and why the period continues to attract audiences and scholars. Events will include:

- ❖ Keynote addresses from Professor Jeffrey Jerome Cohen, Patricia Lovett MBE, and Dr Chris Jones.
- ❖ A 'poetics of medievalism' round table with contemporary poets including Jane Draycott, Matthew Francis and Sarah Law.
- ❖ An in-conversation event with novelist Alan Garner.
- ❖ A season of medievalist film opening with Lotte Reiniger's The Adventures of Prince Achmed (1926), with a live musical accompaniment by Manchester musician Chris Davies, taking place at the arts venue HOME.

Website: themamo.org Twitter: @TheMAMOCnf

Email: mamo.conference@manchester.ac.uk

Register online: <https://tinyurl.com/lr76ffk>